TUESDAY EVENING, JUNE 25, 1878.

HOW OTHERS SEE Us .- The following ex tract is from a private letter to the editor of the Philadelphia Press, written by a Pennsyl vanian who has settled in Virginia :--

"I am myself a Pennsylvanian; have lived here eleven years. I do not take any part in active politics; would not find it wholesome to do so. The old leading whig families, such as Judge Rim's and ex Senator Lewis's, furnish enough republicans to fill the Federal offices. which they consider as much their right as 1 do my houses; and they look with as much hostility on a Northern republican as do the conservatives, except at voting time. In fact the political creed of the F. F. V. of any party is summed up in the couplet-

'Lord bless me and my son John. His wife, and my wife, us four and no more.

Amen. "The climate here is good, the land kindly and susceptible of improvement, markets good. winters short, and, taken all in all, affords much better chance to men with a few hundreds or thousands of dollars than does the far West (I speak from experience, having made a farm in the West.) Socially we are kindly treated, but the want of schools, the want of any sensible ideas of improving the lands, and the political opinions of the people, make it doubtful if this generation sees much improvement in the country or its finances.'
